Subject: Timeline Options

Hi Tawanda –

Mike asked me to find ways to reduce the length of the timeline, therefore I took a jab at coming up with some options. The only thing I could think of was to reduce some of the review times. I thought we could save some time by putting the document on Sharepoint and asking people to review it at the same time (so they could see each other's comments....Mike, Dan and Donna). Would you look over the options and let me know what you think? Also, feel free to come up with another idea or modify one of mine. I figured we would send a couple of different options to Dan today and let him decide.

Thanks much,
Bo
